RESOURCE PACK OF INFORMATION Basic provisions for practical training

Before practical training the Group Manager (UISU):

• instructs the students;

• gives each student an internship diary (business trip permit), personal tasks for practical training;

• checks the availability of two copies of practical skill list per group (one for students and one for the preceptor).

On arrival at the place of internship the student is obliged:

• to come to the organization where he/she is to do an internship strictly in accordance with the terms of practical training signed by the Rector of the University;

• the student who voluntarily changed the place of internship is considered to be absent;

• to meet the person who is responsible for practical training at the organization;

- to submit a health permit to practical training;
- to submit a practical skill list;
- to get an understanding of the workplace and equipment operating rules;
 - to get through workplace-related training;
 - to set up a schedule, which should be held at the place of work.

During the internship, the student is obliged:

• to comply fully with the rules of internal regulations of the organization where the practical training is held;

• to leave the workplace, only after notifying the Preceptor and the Group Manager (UISU);

• to submit an internship diary for review, comments and signature on demand of the Preceptor/Group Manager; the diary is the main student's document during the practical training, he/she should write down all the work performed, in accordance with the program of practical training; the diary is held at the workplace;

during practical training, the student is obliged to master at least 80-90
% of the practical skills specified by the program of practical training;

• to follow the rules of deontology;

• to participate in scientific and rationalization activity in accordance with the personal task.

On completion of the internship, the student is obliged to:

Submit an internship diary to his/her department. The internship diary is to be filled in by the student, signed by the preceptor and the Group manager. It should be certified by the seal of the institution where the practical training took place.

The report on the practical training and submission of the internship diary are held at the Department immediately on completion of internship (within 1-2 days). The student is to submit his/her internship diary to the Department.

A student who has not completed the internship program, or received a negative feedback about his/her work, or interrupted it without permission, or received a low grade, is sent again to practical training again during his/her holidays or can be expelled from the institution because he/she has unfulfilled program requirements as written in the University Charter.

The practical training is graded on a five-point scale (1-5 years of study) and is taken into account when awarding a scholarship and transferring to the next year of study.

II. General rules for keeping the internship diary

1. The internship diary is the main student's document of the during the internship.

2. During practical training, the student briefly writes down in his/her internship diary everything that he/she has and describes the completion of personal tasks.

3. The student is to submit an internship diary for review on demand of the Preceptor/Group Manager. The Preceptor and Group Manager sign the internship diary, make their comments and give students additional tasks.

4. On completion of internship the internship diary and the report should be reviewed by the Preceptor/Group Manager. The Preceptor and Group Manager also sign the internship diary.
